News For The Employees of Data General

---

June 10, 1988

Employees Celebrate Five Years Of Service

During Tuesday's service award luncheon, employees brought with them a combined total of more than 500 years of service with Data General.

More than 100 employees from Westboro, Milford, Southboro and Woodstock were honored this week for reaching their five-year service milestones with Data General. At the celebration, held at Indian Meadows Restaurant in Westboro, employees received teak trays highlighting the Data General events which took place during their first year with the company, between June 1, 1982 to May 31, 1983. Data General President Ed de Castro attended the celebration, handing out the trays, and congratulating and thanking the employees for their dedicated years of service.

If you are observing your five-year anniversary with Data General this year and were unable to attend the event, you may receive your tray by contacting Lee Ann McGowan at extension 4504 in Westboro or via CEO at host system IMG003. You should also contact Lee Ann if there are any problems with your tray.

Toastmaster Volunteers Teach Boy Scouts

Data General's Toastmaster volunteers have taken on a new challenge, teaching a group of Westboro

Boy Scouts communication and leadership skills.

Six Data General volunteers, Teresa Forster, Ralph Hibbs, Phyllis Turner, Brenda Fraser, Gary Richman, and Mara Davies, are involved in teaching this eight-week program to 12 Boy Scouts, ranging in age from 11 to 15. Some of the creative communication presentations the volunteers have developed include, an oral report on a town meeting, delivering a sales pitch, and extending a formal invitation over the telephone to meet with a business person.

The group meets with the troop members every Monday night from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m. At the completion of the program, the Scouts will earn their communication merit badges, a prerequisite to becoming an Eagle Scout.

Gary, a Youth Leadership coordinator, feels the program has been a great success. "There's good chemistry between the Data General volunteers and the kids," says Gary. "For the future we are considering workshops and teaching the program to a group of Girl Scouts."

There are currently 30 members in the Toastmasters Club at Data General. The group, which has been in existence at the company for a little over eight years, holds weekly meetings every Wednesday at noon. For more information contact President Michael Cadden at (tie line) 221-1686.

Area Code Change

On July 16, a third area code (508) will be introduced in Massachusetts. Most Data General employees working in Massachusetts reside within this service area.

According to New England Telephone, the addition of this area code is necessary to increase the supply of available phone numbers in the state. It will have no effect on current rates. Calls that are not currently toll calls will not become toll calls.

There will be no change in the present western Massachusetts service area (area code 413). The new boundary between area codes 508 and 617 runs in an approximate semicircle from Marblehead on the North Shore around Boston to Kingston on the South Shore. Maps outlining the towns involved have been posted in Westboro, Southboro, Milford and Auburn for employee reference.

Data General facilities in Wellesley, Cambridge and Boston will remain in the 617 area code, however, there will be no change in the company tie lines to those offices.

Jack Kasper, manager of Telecommunications, has organized a task force to outline what steps their organizations have to take to notify customers, vendors, etc. Anyone wanting information about the task force should contact Jack on CEO host IMG010.

Data General Basketball Had Some Surprises

The recently-completed playoffs concluded another successful and enjoyable season for the Data General Basketball League. With the fifth- and sixth-place teams battling for the title in the Recreational Division and a new champion being crowned in the Competitive Division, the parity in both leagues was evident.

Competitive Division

The regular season concluded with the standings much as was expected as the season began. Floating Point finished in first place and looked tough to beat as the playoffs got underway. Top Gun, one of the league's powers, limped into the playoffs after the loss of several key performers. SID was playing its best ball of the year after a slow start. With the stage set, the playoffs promised to be interesting.

In the end, the playoffs went just about the same the regular season. The finalists were Floating Point and Top Gun. Floating Point won the first game in convincing fashion. Top Gun, with its back against the wall, played an inspired game two but came up just short as Floating Point took the crown.

Recreational Division

The Recreational Division was anything but predictable this season. The regular season concluded with the Bouncing Bubatos solidly in first place with several teams, including Six Feet Under, Jump Dot and Marketing, fighting for second place honors. As the playoffs began, the regular season standings would prove meaningless as none of these teams would reach the finals. Instead, it would be the Orphans and the Slam Drunks, with regular season records of 7-8 and 6-9 respectively, who would clash for the title.

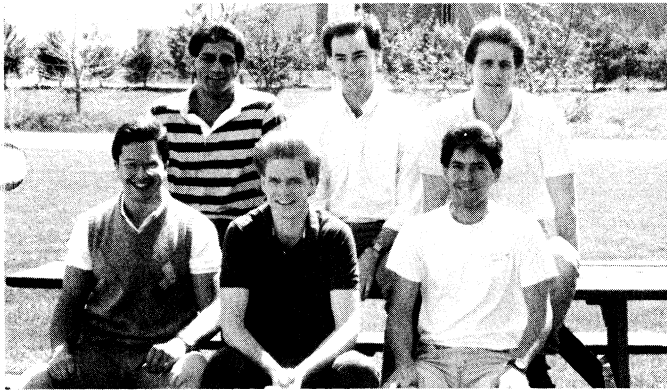

The finals were hotly contested and went the full three-game limit. In the end, it was the Orphans who prevailed as the victors, capturing game three despite a valiant effort by the Slam Drunks.
